

WHERE YOU LEFT HIM

When you are seeking God, and cannot seem to find Him,
Think back....He is where you left Him.
You can know that He has not left you....
It is you that have strayed from Him.

When the burdens seem too great, and you know only He can help,
Think back....He is where you left Him.
You know there isn't a task He cannot handle.
He is only waiting for you to ask Him.

When you feel He would not want you, because you have strayed too far,
Think back....He is where you left him.
His love is boundless, and He forgives a repentant heart,
Receive His healing and accept Him.

When you are weary and you know you cannot go it alone,
Think back....He is where you left Him.
His strength is sufficient and His wisdom more than you need,
Accept His teaching and learn from Him.

His love is greater than any anger or hate you feel,
Think back....He is where you left Him.
Let Him help you forgive; yourself and others too,
Then you are free to just love Him!
Because you have found Him!!!
